

Figurative Language- complete with examples from the video

Metaphor: A comparison of two things without using like or as.

*ex:

Simile: A comparison of two things using like or as.

*ex:

Personification: Giving human traits to non-human objects

*ex:

Hyperbole: An exaggeration that cannot possibly be true.

*ex:

Alliteration: The repetition of the same initial consonant.

*ex:

Onomatopoeia: Words which sound like what they mean.

*ex:

Oxymoron: Words that are together in a sentence that do not sound like they should go together.

*ex:

Idiom: A group of words whose collective meaning is very different from its literal meaning.

*ex:

Allusion: A reference to a famous work (movies, television show, book, etc...).

*ex: