

Choose only one:

1. Thinking

Are the aliens correct in their judgment of human behavior? Tell why or why not by including at least two significant examples from the teleplay or from real life.

2. Theme

What is the main theme of this teleplay? Explain by using two examples from the teleplay to support your answer.

3. Visualization

After viewing the original TV episode of Monsters are Due on Maple Street, produced by Rod Serling, describe and explain one thing that was significantly different than what you visualized when you read the story. (Possible story elements: Characters, events, dialogue, setting)

Remember to use your copy of the story to help you recall specific names and events.

Constructed Response Acronym reminder:

R – restate

A – answer

C – cite example/explain

E – explain your evidence

R – reread to make sure your answer makes sense (pronouns, spelling, capitalization)

S- Sum it up!